Southern Port Give Rams A Fright

Southern Port-Hamilton gave Melville a big fright in the first half of their "Match of the Day" clash at Melville Reserve last Sunday.

For the first time this season Melville were on the receiving end of some top class football and at half-time they trailed Southern Port by eight goals.

But just as spectators were bracing themselves to see Melville's first defeat of the season, the whole pattern of the game changed in the third quarter.

Melville stormed back into action and snatched a slender lead at three-quarter time. They stretched their lead in the final term and cruised to a 22.22 to 14.14 victory.

Mosman Park handed out a 19 goal thrashing to Cockburn in an upset result that reflects Mosman Park's new found unity and confidence. Captain-Coach Ian Earl told his players before the match that they had to beat Cockburn by at least 18 goals to have any chance of beating Melville today.

Melville defeated Cockburn a fortnight ago by 18 goals and Earl believes Mosman Park are in with a chance of beating Melville.

In the other WAFA match last week, Swan Valley led Belmont all the way to record a solid 15.20 to 13.14 victory. Belmont came back strongly in the last quarter, but Swan Valley stood firm and they are a vastly improved combination.

Today presents another interesting round of fixtures with the "Match of the Day" being played at Melville Reserve between Melville and Mosman Park.

After their big win last week, Mosman Park are now in third place on the WAFA ladder and have their eyes set on a second-semi final berth.

There are certain to be many highlights in this match. The clash between Gareth Stewart and Barry Haydinger in the centre will be an outstanding duel.

Melville will look to take control in the ruck through the in-form Noel Cooper and he will look for support from the outstanding roving combination of Geoff Truscott and Kevin Regan.

Mosman Park, who have had problems with their roving division this season, appear to have solved their problems by teaming up John Litterick and Ian Briggs. This pair will need to shake the packs to give Mosman Park the edge on the ball.

A key player for Mosman Park is full-forward David Harvey, who booted nine goals last Sunday. Other danger players in the Mosman Park line-up are ruck-rover Ian Earl and full-back Gavin Hambley is back in the team and firing after clearing up business commitments.

Mosman Park will make things difficult for Melville today, but Melville showed last week that they can handle pressure and they should maintain their unbeaten record.

Cockburn, who have slipped from equal second to fourth on the premiership table in recent weeks face the improving Swan Valley at Beale park today.

Cockburn realise this will be a tough match and they will rise to the occasion and bounce back to their best. Randall Prowse, Tony Gumina and full-forward Roy Koerber will lead the Cockburn revival. Swan Valley will look for centreman Doug Pandlebury, utility player Neil Sumich and ruckman Geoff Perich to show the way, but they may struggle against a Cockburn team that is determined to avenge some disappointing results.

Belmont, who almost beat Swan Valley last Sunday, should be too strong for Midland today in the match played at Forster Park.

COCKBURN NEED TO LIFT

With only two games remaining in the second round of fixtures for us the club is looking very healthy, both on the field and off it. Although the league side has lost two games in a row it is best that the league players learn from their mistakes at this stage of the season rather than waiting until the end of the season, when the finals are coming along.

Garry Stewart was able to release some of the inevitable tension that is upon him by playing in the reserves last week. Not only did he take the field but he dominated the game to surely have been the best man on the ground. His goal kicked from the centre of the ground was the highlight of the day.

Following in Garry's footsteps for courageous and inspirational play was Doug Searle who dominated the colts game. Doug is having a great season and is playing well each week. He also took off the prizemoney in our first "Points Score" Raffle of the season. Another colts player who was outstanding was first game player, Rod Grljusich, who is a great acquisition for the team.

In the league, Randall Prowse again showed that he is one of the competition's best players, Ian Coleman and Tony Gumina also played good games.

Not to be outdone by his brother, Graham McCarten strode into the lime-light last Sunday by playing in both the colts and league games. Graham played well in both games. His club spirit has been amply demonstrated from the start of the season, because even though he has been carrying an injury he has volunteered his services for many tasks, whether as runner, statistician or emergency player.

Two weeks ago the W.A.F.A. held a meeting between the Presidents, Secretaries and Delegates of all clubs.

The outcome of the meeting was definitely one of enthusiastic support for the competition, with there being every possibility that the competition will grow in strength in future seasons. So far this season our club has shown that it is one of the playing strengths of the competition. At this stage it is worth congratulating our players on their efforts so far, which have brought the club back into the attention of all football supporters.

The committee hopes that players and supporters will attend the forthcoming "Black And White Night" and make it not only an enjoyable event, but also an occasion to bring all the people in the club together in a social atmosphere.

Support is still required at the Bingo on Wednesday nights, whether as players or helpers. Trevor O'Brien and Frank Geers look forward to seeing you there.

We invite all Swan Valley players and supporters to join us in drinks after the game.

"Three teams in the four, in 84".

EAGLE EYE.

RAMS STILL ON TOP

Last Sunday our League side turned in one of the best performances ever seen from a Melville league side, (after half time).

Southern Port-Hamilton in the first half put our league side under some pressure. With inaccurate kicking the league side was down the chute. To the credit of the players and the coach, they lifted their game to one of the best performances seen at Melville for a long time. The resurgence was due to the leadership of Putt Nose, Goldilocks (Gareth please ensure that Marjorie sews the buttons on your shorts next week to stop them falling down), Stud Regan, Nipper, Stewie, and the other members of the 20.

The only comment this scribe will make; As a general rule, you must play all FOUR quarters.

Salt tablets will be supplied prior to the game to Margaret and Kip Keino to enable them to produce a little saliva.

The efforts so far from Paul Lee Trevino Buckley in managing the league side are appreciated. Also Fingers Ball for his efforts so far this season, keep up the good work Norm.

DAD'S ARMY

Not a good performance. However, when our backs were to the wall it was amazing how much we tried. Good performances from Timmy Bunce and Carl Collica. Good to see you back Carl.

Appreciation is passed onto Jack Sobers for his work as Team Manager, also supplying our Football Director Mr Maxwell with cigarettes. Keep up the good work Jack.

All that needs to be said as far as the Colts are concerned is that passed on by Kim (sounding like Ronald Dale Barassi) Davies. A bigger effort is required from the colts if they are to take that big step forward this year and win the flag. Our grateful thanks to the partners in crime again, Brooksie and Buncie.

P.S. A message to the league - any player who is injured, please attend Mini Max's school for Statisticians starting 6.00p.m. Thursday night in the clubrooms, finishing 11.00p.m.

Belmont Lose Again

The reserves team let Swan Valley get the jump on them, and despite a third quarter comeback by the team Swan Valley won by a couple of goals. First game players Murray Holloway and Graham (Jacko) Worne put in good games. With Jacko's strong marking in front of goals, he even kicked a few. Keith Knight also played solidly in defence and Frank Hodges played well.

The league team kept with Swan Valley throughout the game, and a lapse in concentration in the third quarter just about ended it for the guys but to their credit they fought back in the final term and only went down by six points. Steve Francis, who had the last kick of the game from about 50 metres out, however the pressure got to him and he didn't make the distance.

A fine performance by ruck-rover Peter Best, who ran all day, taking strong marks around the ground and getting a heap of kicks. Coxy played well on his wing for most of the game, Fatty at centre-half-forward contributed with a few goals and Cuppa at centre-half-back put in another solid performance and capped it off with a goal.

Two Wins To Swan

Great to win both games last week. The reserves had us a little worried at three quarter time after being seven goals in front, it was a good effort to see the boys bounce back and win. Nicky Bruce was again in good form as was Allan Jaechki and Kim Boyd.

The league team gave a solid four quarter effort. Shooting for goals let us down at times, but it was good to get the four points. Best players on the day were; Neil Sumich, Doug Pendlebury, G. Perich, G. Johnston, Mark Otie and John Zaknich.

Today we meet Cockburn in what should be two hard games. We will be trying to win three in a row and it will take a big effort from both teams. I am confident however that we can win. Good luck to both teams today.

A DAY OF ACHIEVEMENT

Congratulations to field umpire Bruce Wainwright on umpiring his 200th game for the W.A.F.A today. It has taken 10 years of loyal dedication to the W.A.F.A and umpiring to achieve this milestone.

Bruce was awarded life membership of the W.A.F.A at the end of last season for his services to the Association.

Another congratulations to goal umpire Ross Howlett for his 250th game. In fact its ross's 250th Sunday appearance, meaning Ross has umpired something like 400 games taking into account that in a lot of cases goal umpires do two games on the Sunday. Ross, a life member of the W.A.F.A has enjoyed excellent success as a goal umpire since joining in 1972, officiating in 8 grand finals. However after having watched Ross at work his record comes as no surprise.

Boundary umpire Terry Filken umpires his 50th today. I'm sure we won't have seen the end of Terry for many years.

From all the umpires and the W.A.F.A executive, "Good Luck And Well Done".
